All liturgical ministers: Adult Altar Servers, Choir Members, EMoHC, Lectors, and Ushers, will have to complete a Virtus workshop in order to be able to remain active in your ministry or ministries. This is a diocesan requirement. For additional information, please contact your ministry coordinator(s) or the church office.

Notes to Lectors: Please join with the Presider, Deacon, EMoHC, Master Acolyte, and the Altar Servers in the Ministry Room for prayer prior to the Sunday Liturgies. Also, for uniformity, when you reach the foot of the altar during the procession, your sign of reverence is a profound bow.

Some confusion appears to remain regarding the reverence to the altar during the liturgy of the word. The Master Acolyte, both lectors and the cantor are to assemble at the foot of the altar immediately following the opening prayer. They make a profound bow to the altar together and in procession go around the foot of the altar and the lectors and cantor ascend the altar steps and face the assembly. Each, in turn, proclaim their reading and then the three descend the altar to process with the Master Acolyte to the front of the altar, where they again reverence the altar with a profound bow before returning to their places in the assembly. The 2 bows constitute reverence to the altar and no other bowing or genuflection is appropriate.
